Rules of 1881 were issued after obtaining the assent of the Governor General in Council. These rules have the force of law and are still current. No reasons have been assigned for modification.

1) I members view:— decision must be taken. We may perhaps reduce the fees to Rs 5 if necessary. But this does seem to be so.

3) Are the rules about Talin Khans have been included in the Schedule attached to the Mysore Treaty as a rule having the force of law, it is a point for orders if the rules can be amended without a reference to the Govt of India and without legislative action.
